2020 Mayoral Service Recognition Awards: AmeriCorps Alum Impact Award

AmeriCorps Alum Impact Award

Page description:
The AmeriCorps Alum Impact Award honors an AmeriCorps alum who has continued to embody the AmeriCorps spirit of “Getting Things Done” in New York City communities beyond their service year.

Eligibility:

- Nominations must be made for volunteer work an individual completed after their AmeriCorps service term (i.e., not for work completed as part of a job or paid position or their AmeriCorps service assignment). Individuals who serve on nonprofit boards are eligible for nomination.
- For the purposes of this award, electoral volunteering cannot be counted as service (i.e., volunteering for a candidate for political office). NYC Service as a division of the Mayor’s Office is nonpartisan, and cannot accept nominations political in nature. However, nonpartisan voter registration efforts and census outreach DO qualify.
- Nominations can be submitted for volunteers who are alumni of the following AmeriCorps programs: AmeriCorps State and National, NCCC, and VISTA.
- The volunteer activity must have taken place in New York City during the 2020 calendar year.
